Something personal . . .

Jack and his wife Judy have been married since 1965 and are blessed with two children and five grandchildren.

Professional focus and areas of expertise . . .

Jack says he enjoys learning and staying current with an ever changing real estate market that has become truly global. He is satisfied when he has accomplished his clients' real estate objectives.

Licensed in 1980 (#800200275), Jack has extensive real estate training, education and practical experience in a number of disciplines. He holds certifications or designations recognized both nationally and internationally by the National Association of REALTORS® and The National Association of Home Builders®. Jack is a certified and accredited luxury home marketing specialists with affiliations through the National Association of Home Builders®, The Luxury Home Council® and The Institute of Luxury Home Marketing®. In addition, he is a member of the National Association of REALTORS® International Real Estate Council, earning the designation of Certified International Property Specialist in/CIPS® in 2007.

Business philosophy and working style . . .

When I entered the industry in 1980, I had absolutely no clue . . . But what I have learned over the years since, is to never take my business or my clients for granted. Subscribing to a code of ethics and professional standards of practice establish working guidelines and boundaries I can live by and that is important to me.
