

IBC Advisory Board

Bridget Armstrong

Bridget Armstrong has had a lifelong passion for business and cultural diversity that has been reflected by her involvement in Future Business Leaders of America, Multi-Cultural Club, and taking college-level classes for Spanish, U.S. History, and English while in High School. While attending Lane Community College and the University of Oregon, Bridget's concentration was on International Studies, Political Science and Spanish in the Pre-Law Program. As a real estate professional, her focus is on working with clients from other countries, who are interested in investing in the U.S., and with clients who are looking to invest in international markets abroad. Bridget is currently a Member of the Eugene Chamber of Commerce Chapter of the Latino Business Network and Certified International Property Specialist Candidate.

Krista Bolf

Currently involved with real estate sales in Mexico through my Mexican Corporation – International Corporation de Inversiones.

See my website at www.BuyHomesinMexico.net to visit my international listings and get more information about buying and selling in Mexico.

I have my AMPI designation which is the Mexican equivalent of Realtor in the USA.

I am also a certified Transnational Referral Agent TRC and subscriber to WorldProperties.com. OAR Executive committee member 2006-2008

Dawn Dwyer

Dawn Dwyer is an International broker serving the beautiful communities of Central Oregon. Her background in education has brought her around the world creating curriculums and working in diverse settings. This cultural enrichment has fueled her passion for working with international clientele.

Dawn's has created the class "Real Estate Investing Abroad" at Central Oregon Community College and teaches it on a regular basis. Aside from teaching, Dawn has obtained her Eco Broker Certification, Transnational Referral Certification, and is currently completing her Certified International Property Specialist designation.

Dawn is an International Member of A.M.P.I., (Asociación Mexicana de Profesionales Inmobiliarios) since 2006.

Jose Gonzales

Licensed Realtor since 1997.

Principal Broker/ President of Tu Casa Real Estate since 2005. A Real Estate office with end to end bilingual services and a clientele that primarily comes from Mexico and South America.

Recently completed CIPS education/ course requirements.

Member of Business Issues Committee for Oregon Association of Realtors.

Member of International Business Council Advisory Board for the OAR.

Co Taught "Doing Business in Mexico" course for Oregon Association of Realtors in Portland.

Speaker for "Tapping into the International Market Both Locally and Abroad" panel presentaiton for the Oregon Association of REALTORS® in Eugene.

Wrote article for Oregon Realtor Magazine "What Does International Real Estate Mean to You"

President of Tu Casa Trust International in Mexico City. A Real Estate office dedicated to developing and maintaining relationships with Mexican developers and assist in the transaction management of international transactions.

Currently doing a weekly radio show on a Spanish radio station on Buying Your Home in Mexico. Outside of Real Estate:

Vice Chair of Foundation Board, Member of Executive Committee and Member of Fundraising Committee for Farmworkers Housing Development Corporation.

Member of Northeast Salem Neighborhood Association.

Volunteer with various non profit organizations aimed at affordable housing, migrant education and youth mentoring.

Born in Portland of Mexican Immigrants and raised in the beautiful Willamette Valley. Father of 3 and resides in West Salem.

"Owning Real Estate sets the foundation for success. It is difficult to find another type of investment that rivals the benefits of Home ownership."

Lori Tyedman

Lori Tyedman is a licensed REALTOR® in Oregon. She is President of Worldrelo, a company that specializes in helping families from around the world relocate in the U.S. Lori is a professional speaker and has lectured both locally and internationally on the importance of maintaining a global perspective during the relocation process. Lori is active in the Oregon Association of Realtors and currently sits on the 2008 OAR executive committee. She also provides prior-to-job-acceptance education to both interviewees and corporations. Lori, who married an Englishman, has traveled to and has lived overseas. As a mother of four, she strives to help entire families, not just the transferee, to get settled in their new place of residence.